

THE CAMPAIGN IN OHIO.

SHERMAN'S REJOINDER TO HENDRICKS.

THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE'S BUNGLING IN FI-

NANCE—ACTION OF THE BREWERS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 26.—W. G. Webster, of Illinois, the first man appointed as an employee in the Treasury Department, at Washington, under the new Civil Service law, addressed the College Blaine and Logan Club this evening. The meeting was enthusiastic.

Mr. Webster said that George William Curtis, president of the Civil Service Commission, had sent circulars to all the clerks in Washington setting forth that it was their duty to take no active interest in politics. Mr. Webster asserted that he was now on his vacation, and was justified in spending his time as he saw fit.

He declared that the superiors in the service never made any effort to restrain their subordinates from political activity, and that the head of his department did not know whether he was a Republican or a Democrat. The nomination of Mr. Blaine for President, was styled a triumph for young men. He would not venture to cast their vote. He concluded as follows: "Take any sentence in the Republican platform as a text and you will find in Blaine's speeches a comment to expand it, and in his letter of acceptance a comment to qualify it. In the audience there were many professors.

SATAROGA COUNTY FULLY AROUSED.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

GLENS FALLS, N. Y., Sept. 25.—The largest political gathering ever assembled in the northeastern part of Saratoga County, was that at South Glens Falls last evening, to hear the reading of the names of candidates for Congress, & State, & members of Saratoga Society. Four thousand people were present, including nearly four hundred United Knights of this place. The campaign has opened in earnest in this neighborhood, and there will be an increased Republican majority in November.

TO OPEN HEADQUARTERS AT NASHVILLE.

THE REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN IN THE SOUTH—GOOD NEWS FROM OHIO—CLEVELAND GOING TO BU-

FALO.

The Republican National Committee intends to open the way into Africa.

The effect of the prominence given to the matter has been to add the worst features of the Greenback heresy to the free trade bond which the Democracy is carrying. The old "Mossbacks" are hard in meny men and they say that Mr. Hendricks has made it clear to-day that the friends of Cincinnati have decided upon concert of action, in the pending political contest, to aid the Democracy.

H. B. Scherman, the New-York brewer, president of the National Association, has been here for several days. Nineteen of the twenty-one brews have agreed to give their support to Newman for Senator in Ohio in October. The same power is being brought to bear to solidify the liquor dealers.

John R. McLean, started last night, for New-York, and his departure is generally connected with a mission to the Democratic National Convention to secure funds for the Ohio fight.

CROWDS WELCOME HANNIBAL HAMLIN.

MECHANICSBURG, Sept. 26.—Fifteen thousand Republicans assembled yesterday to greet Hannibal Hamlin, who returned from that country this week. He said that he earnestly desired the election of Blaine, and that he would speak to the members of the committee to that effect.

They were studiously anxious, Mr. Phelps will make several speeches for the committee in this state, excepting, however, who attended the meeting.

In the afternoon the three visitors spoke in the public park to a large and attentive audience.

All the Blaine and Logan clubs in the vicinity were present.

ADDRESSING IRISH-AMERICANS.

FIRST EVERLY, Sept. 26.—Dane T. Driscoll and W. J. Gleason, of Cleveland, addressed a large and enthusiastic Republican meeting in the wig-wam hall, last night composed largely of Irish-Americans. Their speeches were well received, and their visit here was highly productive of great good, especially among their constituents, many of whom for the first time have thrown off the shackles of Democracy and have espoused with enthusiasm, the cause and the principles of the Republican party.

GENERAL FIVING FOR BLAINE.

LANCASTER, Sept. 26.—General Thomas Ewing, who was the Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio against Charles Fifer in 1879, was a leading figure on political topics yesterday, by a correspondence of the Cincinnati Enquirer. General Ewing justified his interlocution by the statement that he intended voting for Blaine and Logan.

GENERAL BEAVER ON THE SITUATION.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

SPRINGFIELD, Sept. 26.—General L. A. Beaver, of Pennsylvania, and J. H. Warren, of New York, addressed a large and enthusiastic audience at the Central Republican Wigwam here.

Several meetings will be held every night in the city and in the country until the October election.

General Beaver has been in Ohio since

Sept. 13, and has followed, in some extent, the same course by his four years ago to the election of Governor. The reception we received at Albany, Utica, and Syracuse, was quite called grand.

Newspaper writers have an adequate idea of the multitudinous trials and difficulties of the campaign for the Democratic ticket.
